

Guidelines for Contributors to AALCO Journal of International Law

The Editorial Board of the AALCO Journal of International Law invites submissions of contributions focusing on international legal issues with a view to publication. For consideration by the Editorial Board, the Contributors are requested to observe the following guidelines.

- The contributions should generally be on issues of international law. They also could address issues that have bearing on international law.
- The article should be preceded by an abstract.
- All materials for publication and all correspondence regarding the Journal should be addressed to the Editor-in-Chief, AALCO Journal of International Law, 29-C, Rizal Marg, Diplomatic Enclave, Chanakyapuri, New Delhi-110021 or through the e-mail: mail@aalco.int
- The submissions should be accompanied by an assurance that it is an original work of the author and that it has not been published, submitted or accepted elsewhere. Copyright of articles and other contributions published in the AALCO Journal of International Law is vested in the journal and its contributors. Apart from any fair dealing for the purposes of private study, research, criticism or review as permitted under the Copyright Act, no part may be reproduced by any process without written permission. Inquiries should be directed to the Editors.
- The manuscript should be typed in double space (text as well as foot notes) throughout on one side of A-4 size paper and submitted in duplicate.
- Contributions could be made either/both in electronic and/or in hard copy and it should be in MS-Word.
- Manuscripts will not be returned under any circumstances.
- Spellings should follow the British pattern as in the Oxford English Dictionary.
- Referencing style for footnotes: The first reference to any book, article or document should be mentioned in the following way:

Book: H. A. L. Hart, The Concept of Law, 2th Edition (Clarendon Press, Oxford, 1994), p.15.

Article appearing in an edited book: R.P. Anand, "The World Court on Trial", in R.S. Pathak and R.P. Dhokalia (ed.), International Law in Transition: Essays in Memory of Judge Nagendra Singh (Lancers Book, New Delhi, 1987), pp. 75-88 at p.79.

Article appearing in a Journal: B. S. Chimni, "Permanent Sovereignty over Natural Resources: Toward a Radical Interpretation", Indian Journal of International Law, vol. 38, (1998)", pp. 208-217 at p. 210. Full name of the Journal should be provided where it is being referred to for the first time, thereafter, in subsequent references its abbreviated name should be mentioned.

Articles in News magazines: Kuldip Nayar, "Where the NHRC Has Failed", World Focus (New Delhi), vol. 22 (January 2001), pp. 17- 18 at p. 17.

Articles from Newspapers: Ramesh Thakur, "Do law politics intersect or collide in the ICC?", The Hindu (New Delhi), 21 July 2008, p. 8.

ICJ Reports: Appeal Relating to the Jurisdiction of the ICAO Council (India v. Pakistan), ICJ Reports 1972, pp. 46-179 at p. 70.

UN documents: United Nations Millennium Declaration Adopted by the General Assembly on 8 September 2000 at its Fifty-fifth session, UN Doc. A/RES/55/2.

In subsequent references to sources already cited in the article, the following format should be used: Hart, note 9, p. 45. (if the reference to Hart appears at foot-note 9). If the same author is quoted more than once in an earlier footnote in such cases the authors' name should be followed by his relevant work. In case same reference is cited in the succeeding footnote Ibid should be used.