

Ms. WANG Liyu

Date of birth: November, 1965

Place of birth: Hubei, China

Nationality: Chinese

Marital status: Married with one child

Working Experience

2017-	Deputy Secretary General, AALCO
2017	Counselor, the Foreign Ministry of China
2013-2017	Consul, Chinese Consulate General in New York
2009-2012	First Secretary, the Foreign Ministry of China, lived with the family in New York
2008	First Secretary, Law and Treaty Dept., the Foreign Ministry of China
2003-2007	First Secretary, Chinese Embassy in the US
1997-2003	Second Secretary, Deputy Director of Division, First Secretary, Law and Treaty Dept., the Foreign Ministry of China
1990-1997	Assistant Research Fellow, China Institute for Marine Affairs

Education

1. Master of Science, General Maritime Administration and Environment Protection, World Maritime University, Sweden, 1994-1995
2. Master of Law (International Law), Law School, Wuhan University, China, 1987-1990.
3. Bachelor of Law (International Law), Law School, Wuhan University, China, 1983-1987.

Principal Publications

1. Author, "International Crime--Somali Piracy: Challenges to International Law", 286 pages, in Chinese, July 2011, Heilongjiang Education Press, China.
2. "The New Legal Regime for China's Territorial Sea", Ocean Development and International Law, 1994, coauthor. (English)
3. International Maritime Boundary: Central Pacific and East Asia authored by Judge Choon-Ho Park, co-translator, Law Press, 1994.

4. The Application of International Treaties in the Domestic Law in China, Chinese Yearbook of International Law, 1993.
5. “The Territorial Sea Law of China in 1992”, Proceedings of the 27th Annual Conference of the Law of the Sea Institute of the University of Hawaii, Seoul, South Korea (1993). (English)
6. Comparative Study on the National Legislation in the Deep Seabed Area”, Chinese Yearbook of International Law, 1992.
7. The Legal Regime for The Passage of the Foreign Vessels through the Chinese Territorial Sea, Ocean Development & Management, No 4, 1992.
8. The Effect of International Law of the Chinese Discovery and Effective Occupation of the Islands in the South China Sea, Ocean and Coastal zone development, No 4, 1991.

Liyu WANG is a professional diplomat with international law expertise, who works on the various areas, among others, including:

- consular affairs;
- piracy and international security;
- US Congress;
- maritime boundary delimitation;
- consultation between China and Asean on marine issues;
- bilateral consultations on international law of the sea;
- bilateral consultations on maritime confidence building;
- issues on the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea;
- consultation between China and UNEP on UNEP/GEF project in the South China Sea;
- track-two activities, attending meetings of Council for Security and Cooperation in the Asia Pacific, and the Indonesia Workshop on Managing Potential Conflicts in the South China Sea;
- China’s marine policy;
- national legislation on deep sea-bed mining;
- legal issues relating to the South China Sea;
- the legal regime for the territorial sea;
- national legislation on the continental shelf and the exclusive economic zone;
- the legal regime for marine environment protection.