

AALCO – ILC RELATIONSHIP

Presented By:

Dr. Hassan SOLEIMANI
Deputy Secretary-General, AALCO

14 January 2014

His Excellency Prof. Dr. Rahmat Mohamad, Secretary-General of AALCO;

The team from Volterra Fietta;

Distinguished Participants from Saudi Arabia attending this Training Programme;

A very Good Afternoon to you all!

The topic which I am assigned to address is on “Relationship between the International Law Commission and AALCO”. The International Law Commission is the principal body for the progressive development of international law and its codification under the United Nations system. According to Article 1, paragraph 1, of the Statute of the International Law Commission (ILC), it is provided that the - “Commission shall have for its object the promotion of the progressive development of international law and its codification”.

The founders of the AALCO thought it is imperative for the Organization to have close cooperation with the ILC with a view to providing the work of the ILC inputs from the Asian-African States. Thus, AALCO is required by its Statute to examine subjects that are under consideration by the ILC and thereafter to forward the views of its Member States to the Commission. Fulfilment of this mandate over the years has helped to foster closer relationship between the two bodies. Article 1 (d) of the Statutes of AALCO mandates the AALCO Secretariat to consider the matters relating to the work of the ILC at its annual sessions. Therefore, AALCO has been considering those topics ever since its inception in 1956. It has now become customary that a Representative of ILC addresses the Annual Session of AALCO and reviews on the progress of work in the ILC, while the Secretary-General of AALCO addresses the ILC Session reporting on the common minimum consensus that emerges from the deliberations on the ILC topics at an Annual Session. ILC considers this activity significant as through this process, it receives the views from the perspective of developing countries.

In 2007, the General Assembly invited Member States in association with regional organizations and members of the Commission to convene national or regional meetings dedicated to the work of the Commission. In response to this, AALCO had organised a Seminar to commemorate the Sixtieth anniversary of the ILC. Discussions were held on the:

- (i) Role of the ILC in the Twenty-First Century,
- (ii) Strengthening the Asian-African Solidarity in the ILC, and
- (iii) Ensuring Adequate Reflection of Asian-African concerns in the Work of ILC.

Further, a special debate was organized at AALCO's 49th session in 2010. The topic was "Making AALCO's Participation in the work of ILC More Effective and Meaningful." Among the issues discussed, AALCO members recognized in particular, the importance of responding in a timely manner to the Questionnaires from the ILC on the topics under consideration.

Distinguished delegates,

In relation to the role of developing countries in the ILC, let me inform that presently there are 15 Members in the ILC who are nationals of AALCO Member States. Among them, few members of the ILC participate at our Annual Sessions in order to present the views of the Commission to our Member States.

Joint programmes between AALCO and ILC are also organized. For example, the AALCO-ILC Joint Meetings along the sidelines of the Legal Adviser's Meeting of AALCO Member States in New York in October or November every year. At the AALCO-ILC Joint Meetings, the Special Rapporteurs on the Agenda Items present the abridged version of their reports. This meeting receives wide participation ranging not only from Member States of AALCO but non-Members as well. The presence and active participation of the Legal Advisers of numerous AALCO Member States further enrich the deliberations and provide inputs on how to deal with the new topics under consideration by the Commission. The ensuing deliberations and exchange of views form part of 'state practice' which is relevant as far as formation of customary international law is concerned.

Distinguished delegates,

It is essential to note that not only there must be representation but also substantial participation by member States of Asian-African countries. In that relation, the role of Special Rapporteurs of ILC is very significant. Since establishment of the ILC, 11 Members of the ILC belong to Asian-Africa region who have been appointed as Special Rapporteurs on various important topics. The topics include

- Succession of States in respect of matters other than treaties
- Diplomatic Protection

- Representation of States in their relations with international organizations
- Status, Privileges and Immunities of international organizations, their officials, experts etc.
- Expulsion of Aliens
- Jurisdictional Immunities of States and their Property
- International Liability for Injurious Consequences arising out of acts not prohibited by international law (Prevention of Transboundary Damage from hazardous activity)
- International Liability for Injurious Consequences arising out of acts not prohibited by international law ( International liability in case of loss from transboundary harm arising out of hazardous activities)
- Draft Code of Crimes against the Peace and Security of mankind (Part II)
- Shared Natural Resources
- Most-favoured Nation clause (Part II)
- Protection of Atmosphere

At the 49th session, a comprehensive Background Paper on this topic was prepared by the Secretariat, which consists of Examination of Questions under Consideration of the ILC by the AALCO, Comments/Observations if regarding the Methodology of examination by AALCO of questions under consideration of the ILC, Present and Former Members of the ILC from the Asian-African States, Special Rapporteurs of the ILC from the Asian-African Region.

AALCO also has established an Eminent Person's Group (EPG) Meeting, which is mandated to serve as 'advisory body' to the Secretary-General of AALCO to advise on Organizational and Substantive matters. It also addresses "Substantive Matters which includes the ILC Matters as well.

Distinguished delegates,

In lieu of the growing importance of the work of the ILC, various Inter-Sessional meetings have also been convened by the AALCO Secretariat. In 2012, two important Agenda Items of ILC were discussed. The Speaker was Dr. A. Rohan Perera, former member of the ILC from Sri Lanka. The topics were (i) Immunity of State officials from foreign criminal jurisdiction, and (ii) Protection of Persons in the event of Disasters. Few new topics were also proposed and Prof. Shinya Murase, member of the ILC from Japan briefed on Protection of the Atmosphere, and Fair and Equitable Treatment Standard in International Law.

The Fiftieth Annual Session of AALCO held in 2011 in Colombo, Sri Lanka, mandated the AALCO Secretariat to devote more time for deliberating on the agenda item relating to the work of ILC during its annual sessions. Hence, at the subsequent Annual Sessions of AALCO, Special Half-Day Meetings were convened to deliberate upon "Selected Agenda Items of International Law Commission". At the Fifty-First Annual Session (in 2012), a Special Half-Day Meeting was organised, where two important agenda items of ILC were discussed:

- Protection of Persons in the Event of Disasters
- Immunity of State Officials from Foreign Criminal Jurisdiction

Moreover, at the recent 52nd Annual Session of AALCO held in 2013, a Special Half-Day Meeting was organised, where three important agenda items of ILC were discussed. These were:

- Formation and Evidence of Customary International Law
- Protection of Persons in the Event of Disasters
- Immunity of State Officials from Foreign Criminal Jurisdiction

Sir Michael Wood, the Special Rapporteur for the topic on “Formation and Evidence of Customary International Law” was one of the Speakers. The other two speakers were Mr. Narinder Singh, Secretary-General of Indian Society of International Law who spoke on “Immunity of State Officials from Foreign Criminal Jurisdiction” and Dr. A. Rohan Perera, Former Member of International Law Commission on “Protection of Persons in the Event of Disasters”

Distinguished delegates,

On Follow-up of these meetings post 52nd Annual session, the AALCO Secretariat organised a two-day Workshop on selected agenda items of ILC. This Workshop was convened jointly with National University of Malaysia (UKM) in Bangi-Putrajaya, Malaysia from 29 to 30 November 2013. The Workshop witnessed participation from Member States, academia and students from the Universities in Malaysia. At the AALCO-UKM Workshop, three current members of the ILC reviewed the work of the ILC on three topics.

- Prof. Shinya Murase from Japan who is also the Special Rapporteur for the topic Protection of Atmosphere briefed about the topic and its works.

- Dr. Hussein Hassouna from Egypt briefed about Protection of Persons in the Event of Disasters
- Mr. Narinder Singh from India briefed about the Immunity of Persons in the Event of Disasters

The other distinguished speakers for the Workshop were Prof. Chia-Jui Cheng, Secretary-General of the Curatorium, Asian Xiamen Academy of International Law; and Prof. Rahmat Mohamad, Secretary-General of AALCO. Every working session had one main speaker and two panelists. The chairpersons for these sessions were from the academia. The panelists included myself and my other colleagues from the AALCO Secretariat and faculty members from the UKM. The Working Sessions were on:

- (i) ILC and its relationship with AALCO,
- (ii) Formation and Evidence of Customary International Law,
- (iii) Protection of Atmosphere,
- (iii) Protection of Persons in the Event of Disasters, and
- (v) Immunity of State Officials from Foreign Criminal Jurisdiction.

Distinguished delegates,

The workshop was very successful as these two institutions have agreed to host this Workshop annually, and to establish a Working Group to frame views on the agenda item “Formation and Evidence of Customary International Law”. The Working Group on the topic “Formation and Evidence of Customary International Law” is designed to facilitate the work of the Special Rapporteur and more importantly recall the contributions of Asian-African States in the progressive development of International Law. It also endeavours to transmit the recommendations of AALCO Member States which includes their state practice and customary practices on various important issues that are raised by the Special Rapporteur. The topic has been consensually renamed as “Identification of Customary International Law”

Distinguished delegates,

In the event of the AALCO-ILC relations, may I reiterate that the AALCO continues to attach great importance to its longstanding relationship with the Commission. It would be earnest endeavour to further strengthen this relationship in the years to come.

I Thank You.
