I. INTRODUCTORY

Establishment and functions of the Committee

The Asian Legal Consultative Committee, as it was originally called, was constituted in November 1956 by the Governments of Burma, Ceylon, India, Indonesia, Iraq, Japan and Syria to serve as an advisory body of legal experts and to facilitate and foster exchange of views and information on legal matters of common concern among the member governments. In response to a suggestion made by the then Prime Minister of India, the late Jawaharlal Nehru, which was accepted by all the then participating governments, the Committee's name was changed to that of Asian-African Legal Consultative Committee as from the year 1958, so as to include participation of countries in the African continent. The present membership of the Committee is as follows :-

Full members :- Arab Republic of Egypt, Bangladesh, Democratic People's Republic of Korea, The Gambia, Ghana, India, Indonesia, Iran, Iraq, Japan, Jordan, Kenya, Kuwait, Malaysia, Nepal, Nigeria, Pakistan, Philippines, Republic of Korea, Sierra Leone, Singapore, Sri Lanka, Syrian Arab Republic, Tanzania, and Thailand.

Associate members :- Botswana, and Mauritius.

The Committee is governed in all matters by its Statutes and Statutory Rules. Its functions as set out in Article 3 of its Statutes are :-

- “(a) To examine questions that are under consideration by the International Law Commission and to arrange for the views of the Committee to be placed before the said Commission; to examine the reports of the Commission and to make recommendations thereon to the governments of the participating countries;

- (b) To consider legal problems that may be referred to the Committee by any of the participating countries and to make such recommendations to governments as may be thought fit:
- (c) To exchange views and information on legal matters of common concern and to make recommendations thereon, if deemed necessary; and
- (d) To communicate with the consent of the governments of the participating countries the points of view of the Committee on international legal problems referred to it, to the United Nations, other institutions and international organisations."

The Committee normally meets once annually by rotation in the countries participating in the Committee. Its first session was held in New Delhi (1957), second in Cairo (1958), third in Colombo (1960), fourth in Tokyo (1961), fifth in Rangoon (1962), sixth in Cairo (1964), seventh in Baghdad (1965), eighth in Bangkok (1966), ninth in New Delhi (1967), tenth in Karachi (1969), eleventh in Accra (1970), twelfth in Colombo (1971), thirteenth in Lagos (1972), and the fourteenth in New Delhi from 10th to 18th January, 1973.

Office-bearers of the Committee and its Secretariat

During the fourteenth session held in New Delhi, the Committee elected Dr. Nagendra Singh, the then Chief Election Commissioner of India (now a Judge of the International Court of Justice) and Hon'ble L.A.M. Brewah, Attorney-General and Minister for Justice of Sierra Leone respectively as the President and Vice-President of the Committee for the year 1973-74.

The Committee maintains its permanent Secretariat in New Delhi (India) for day-to-day work and for implementation of the decisions taken by the Committee at its sessions. The Committee functions in all matters through its Secretary-General who acts in consultation with the Liaison Officers appointed by each of the participating countries.

Co-operation with other organisations

The Committee maintains close relations with and receives published documentation from the United Nations, some of its organs such as the International Law Commission, the International Court of Justice, the U.N. High Commission for Refugees, the U.N. Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), the U.N. Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) and the Food and Agricultural Organisation (FAO); the Organisation of African Unity (OAU), the League of Arab States, the International Institute for the Unification of Private Law (UNIDROIT), the Hague Conference on Private International Law, and the Commonwealth Secretariat. The Committee has been co-operating with the United Nations in its Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law and as part of that programme it has sponsored a training scheme which may be availed of by officials of Asian and African governments.

The Committee is empowered under its Statutory Rules to admit at its sessions Observers from international and regional inter-governmental organisations. The International Law Commission is usually represented at the Committee's sessions by its President or one of the members of the Commission. The U.N. Secretary-General has also been represented at various sessions of the Committee.

The Committee sends Observers to the sessions of the International Law Commission in response to a standing invitation extended to it by the Commission. The United Nations also invites the Committee to be represented at all the conferences convoked by it for consideration of legal matters. The Committee was represented at the U.N. Conferences of Plenipotentiaries on Diplomatic Relations and the Law of Treaties. The Committee has been invited to be represented in the sessions of the Third Law of the Sea Conference. The Committee is also invited to be represented at the meetings of the UNCTAD, UNCITRAL and various inter-governmental organisations concerned in the field of law.

Immunities and privileges

The Committee, the representatives of the member States participating in its sessions, the Secretary-General of the Committee and the members of the Secretariat are accorded certain immunities and privileges in accordance with the provisions of the Committee's Articles on Immunities and Privileges.

Membership and procedure

The membership of this Committee which falls into two categories, namely, Full Members and Associate Members, is open to Asian and African governments who accept the Statutes and Statutory Rules of the Committee. The procedure for membership as indicated in the Statutory Rules is for a government to address a note to the Secretary-General of the Committee, stating its acceptance of the Statutes and Statutory Rules.

Financial obligations

Each member government contributes towards the expenses of the Secretariat, whilst a part of the expenses for holding of the sessions are borne by the country in which the session is held. The contributions towards the expenses of the Secretariat of each member country at present vary between £ 900 (Sterling) and £ 1500 (Sterling) per annum depending upon the size and national income of the country. Associate members, however, pay a fixed fee of approximately £ 450 (Sterling) per annum.

Resume of work done by the Committee

During the past seventeen years of its existence the Committee has had to concern itself with all the three types of activities envisaged in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of Article 3 of its Statutes, namely examinations of questions that are under consideration by the U. N. International Law Commission; consideration of legal problems referred by member governments; and consideration of legal matters of common concern.

The topics on which the Committee has been able to make its final reports (recommendations) so far include "Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges", "State Immunity in respect of Commercial Transactions", "Extradition of Fugitive Offenders", "Status of Aliens", "Dual or Multiple Nationality", "Legality of Nuclear Tests", "Arbitral Procedure", "Recognition and Enforcement of Judgements in Matrimonial Matters", "Reciprocal Enforcement of Foreign Judgements, Service of Process and Recording of Evidence both in Civil and Criminal Cases", "Free Legal Aid", "Relief against Double Taxation", "the 1966 Judgement of the International Court of Justice in South-West Africa Cases" and the "Law of Treaties".

The Committee had also finalised its recommendations on the subject of "Rights of Refugees" at its eighth session held in Bangkok (1966), but at the request of one of its member governments it has decided to reconsider its recommendations in the light of new developments in the field of international refugee law. The subject was accordingly given further consideration by the Committee at its tenth and eleventh sessions.

The subjects on which the Committee has made considerable progress are the "Law of International Rivers", "International Sale of Goods and related topics", and the "Law of Sea with particular reference to the peaceful uses of the sea-bed and the ocean floor lying beyond the limits of national jurisdiction." The Committee at its eleventh session had decided to include the Law of the Sea and the Sea-Bed as a priority item on the agenda of its twelfth session having regard to the recent developments in the field and the proposal for convening of a U. N. Conference of Plenipotentiaries to consider various aspects of this subject. In view of the paramount importance of the problems concerning the Law of the Sea to the countries of the Asian-African region, it was also decided to invite all such countries to participate in the discussions on the subject at the twelfth session. Thereafter, the subject was further considered on a priority basis at the thirteenth and fourteenth sessions of the Committee respectively held in Lagos (1972) and New Delhi (1973) and almost all the countries of the Asian-African region were invited to join in the deliberations on the subject at those sessions. The main object underlying this Committee's taking up the Law of the Sea has been to provide a forum for mutual consultation and discussions among the Asian and African governments and to assist them in making concerted and systematic preparations for the then proposed Third Law of the Sea Conference.

The Committee at its fourteenth session also took up the question of Organisation of Legal Advisory Services in Foreign Offices for an exchange of views and information between the participating countries. The idea underlying this exchange of views has been to enable the member countries to acquaint themselves with the systems of legal advising on international legal affairs in each other's countries.

Some of the other topics which are pending consideration of the Committee include 'Diplomatic Protection and State Responsibility', 'State Succession', 'International Commercial Arbitration', 'International Legislation on Shipping' and 'Protection and Inviolability of Diplomatic Agents and other persons entitled to special protection under International Law'. The last mentioned topic had been placed on the agenda of the fourteenth session, but at the suggestion of some of the Delegations this matter has been deferred for consideration at some future session of the Committee.

Publications of the Committee

The full reports, including the verbatim record of discussions together with the recommendations of the Committee are made available only to the governments of the member States of the Committee. The Committee, however, brings out regularly shorter reports on its sessions for general circulation and sale. So far it has published reports on its first to thirteenth sessions. The Committee has also brought out five special reports on the following topics :—

1. The Legality of Nuclear Tests.
2. Reciprocal Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments.
3. The Rights of Refugees.

4. Relief against Double Taxation and Fiscal Evasion.
5. The South West Africa Cases.

The Secretariat of the Committee published in 1972 its compilation of the Constitutions of African States with the co-imprint of Oceana Publications Inc., New York. Earlier it had brought out its compilation of the Constitutions of Asian States in the year 1968. The proposed publications of the Committee include the following :—

- (1) Digest of important decisions of the municipal courts of Asian and African countries on international legal questions.
- (2) Digest of Treaties and Conventions registered with the U. N. Secretariat to which an Asian or African State is a party.
- (3) Foreign Investment Laws and Regulations of Asian and African Countries.
- (4) Laws and Regulations relating to Control of Import and Export Trade in Asian and African countries.
- (5) Laws and Regulations relating to Control of Industry in Asian and African countries.
