

Guidelines of the AALCO Journal of International Law

The Guidelines of the AALCO Journal of International Law is statement of the editorial policy of the Board of Editors along with the contribution guidelines containing practical information to be adhered to in the submission of manuscripts. At the outset, it is made clear that only original articles on contemporary topics of International law shall be selected, and the decision of the Editor in Chief, of the AALCO Journal of International Law shall be final in this regard.

The AALCO Journal of International Law has regularly published the works of academics and experts in the field of International Law, and has placed an equal importance on theoretical and empirical methods of research in International Law. Each issues contains Articles, Notes and Current Developments on contemporary issues, strives to foster debate on a variety of topics that are pertinent to developing countries in the international legal discourse.

Submission of the manuscripts and correspondence must be addressed to aalcojournal@aalco.int, and must be made in strict conformity with the following guidelines:-

- The article should be preceded by an abstract of maximum 500 words.
- The submissions should be accompanied by a declaration that it is an original work of the author and that it has not been published, submitted or accepted elsewhere. Copyright of articles and other contributions published in the AALCO Journal of International Law is vested in the journal and its contributors. Apart from any fair dealing for the purposes of private study, research, criticism or review as permitted under the Copyright Act, no part may be reproduced by any process without written permission. Inquiries should be directed to the Editors.
- The manuscript should be submitted in the Times New Roman justified font, with size 12 for the body of the text and size 10 for the footnotes. The text of the body should be double spaced and footnotes should be single spaced. The name of the author and page numbers should be provided in the header of the document, and layout margin of 1 inch (2.54 cm) should be maintained uniformly in the manuscript.
- Spellings should follow the British standard in conformity with the Oxford English Dictionary.
- Referencing style should conform to the Oxford Standard Citation for Legal Authorities, (4th Edition), 2006 (OSCOLA) available in full at:
https://www.law.ox.ac.uk/sites/files/oxlaw/oscola_2006.pdf ; and for quick reference at:
https://www.law.ox.ac.uk/sites/files/oxlaw/oscola_4th_edn_hart_2012quickreferenceguide.pdf for international law sources at:
https://www.law.ox.ac.uk/sites/files/oxlaw/oscola_4th_edn_hart_2012quickreferenceguide.pdf
- Only recognized abbreviations may be used in accordance with the Cardiff Index on Legal Abbreviations available at: <http://www.legalabbrevs.cardiff.ac.uk/>.